

Hollis Seniors Newsletter

May 2023

Reminder: we are still doing Yoga each Thursday from 1015 to 1100 AM here in the Barn. Spread the word and bring your friends. Donation is still only $5.00.

PS: Laura will be coming back.

We had interesting activities during April. To start, Julie Roland, who is the editor of the Hollis Brookline News On Line provided us with an update of her “on-line” newspaper which covers activities of Brookline and Hollis. It is published on line, every Friday, and lists various activities, business and events that are happening in the 2 towns. Additionally, it lists what is going on with the local town governments, to include meetings, agendas, etc. A great resource for town folk to follow what is happening in their towns.

The next week was a free day with social games, camaraderie, etc.

The following week we had an outstanding presentation by Pam Arpin and Morris Demers about the Granite State Ambassadors (GSA). The mission of the GSA is to maintain a program of being the “official” greeters to folks visiting our state. Members are at the airports, welcome centers, museums, etc that are scattered around our state. In addition, they provide free educational programs, including tours and lectures. If you are thinking about joining this organization or want more information, please see Pam.

During our last meeting of the month we celebrated April birthdays with cake and ice cream along with our business meeting. Items discussed were:

The HBHS Jazz Band will be playing for us on 8 June 2023

Our annual picnic will be held, here at the Barn, on 20 July 2023.

Activities for May are:

4 May: An AARP Emergency Preparedness Volunteer Team will be presenting a “Be Red Cross Ready” class on how we might better prepare ourselves in case of an emergency or disaster.

11 May: A Free Day OR, a choice of heading over to the Nashua Senior Center for a Spring Fling music and activities event. Lynn is handling this event. Please see her regarding possible car pooling.

18 May: Donna Marceau who is the Regional Mobility Manager, for our area, will describe the many community transportation resources open to both the greater Nashua and Manchester areas.

25 May: Business meeting and birthday celebrations. May birthdays are: Zee Solomon.

Don't Forget! We have upcoming events planned for future months.

8 June: HBHS Jazz Band

20 July: Annual Picnic
