On Friday, December 20, 2019 at approximately 9:45 PM, Hollis Police Officers received a report of a vehicle driving erratically in the area of Main St. and Monument Square. Officers located the vehicle in question, and after a roadside investigation arrested Lisa Monbleau, 56, of Brookline NH, charging her with DWI.

Then, shortly after midnight, a Hollis officer made a motor vehicle stop on Main St. near Ridge Rd. After a roadside investigation, Jennifer Johnson, 45, of Merrimack NH was arrested and charged with DWI and Possession of prescription drugs.

Both Monbleau and Johnson were released on personal recognizance bail with an arraignment date of January 2, 2020 at the Ninth Circuit Court, Nashua District.

The Hollis Police Department wishes to remind everyone to be safe this Holiday season by always having a designated driver. Drive Sober or get Pulled Over!
