On April 22, 2019, at approximately 1200 hrs, members of the Hollis Police Department were dispatched to a Silver Lake Rd address to check on the welfare of a resident, after a landlord was unable to make contact with him.

Evidence on scene suggested that the resident was home, but officers were unable to make contact with him. They eventually gained entrance into the residence where they encountered a male subject aiming a rifle at the first officer to enter. Officers were able to exit the house, at which point the male exited and complied with officers. He was taken into custody without incident. The male, identified as Scott Lebaron, 63, of Hollis NH, is charged with Criminal Threatening, A Class B Felony. He was transported to a local hospital with a non related medical issue. He was released on cash bail from the hospital with an arraignment date of May 2, 2019 in the Hillsborough County Superior Court.
