On Wednesday, May 27, 2020 at approximately 7:50 AM, members of the Hollis Police Department and Hollis Fire Department/EMS responded to a traffic collision involving a motor vehicle and pedestrian on Depot Road near the intersection of Rideout Road.

The preliminary investigation indicates that a white Nissan Rogue, driven by Deborah Ziolkowski, age 62, of Hollis, NH, was traveling south on Depot Road when a pedestrian, who was traveling north on Depot Road, suddenly veered in to the path of the motor vehicle. This collision was witnessed by a third party. At this time, impaired driving, speed and distracted driving are not suspected to be factors in this collision.

The pedestrian, who was identified as being Madison Kuchta, age 20, was transported to Southern NH Medical Center with non-life threatening injuries. The vehicle operator remained on scene and is cooperating fully with authorities.

Anyone who may have witnessed the collision is asked to contact Officer Adam Kushmerek of the Hollis Police Department at 465-7637. Any press-related questions should be directed to Captain Brendan LaFlamme.
