On December 26, 2023, at approximately 8:00 PM, Hollis Officers received a report of a vehicle driving erratically on Broad St. Officers located the described vehicle parked off of the driveway in the front yard of the registered owners' residence. The vehicle was running, with a lone occupant in the driver's seat. Officers made contact with the driver, identified as Heather Armhold, 39, of Hollis.

After making several observations during their contact with Armhold, Officers determined that she was impaired by alcohol. She was taken into custody and transported to the Hollis Police Department for processing. Armhold was unsteady on her feet, and fell while walking into the booking room of the Hollis Police Department. Out of an abundance of caution she was transported to a local hospital for observation. Armhold was processed at the hospital and released on PR bail with an arraignment date set at the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District.

Armhold is charged with DUI (2nd offense). The second offense stems from a DUI conviction in 2022. She is also charged with Breach of Bail, as she currently had bail conditions in place from a prior arrest in November of 2023. That arrest involved charges of DUI (2nd offense), and four counts of Endangering the Welfare of a Child (passenger under 16 years old).

This arrest marks the 50th arrest for impaired driving in 2023. The Hollis Police Department will continue to aggressively investigate and enforce any impaired driving related offenses. If you are going to drink or consume any substances that impair your ability to operate a motor vehicle, please use a designated driver, ride share service, or simply stay home.
