Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign results in three arrests over Labor Day weekend.

With grant funding provided by the New Hampshire Office of Highway Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Administration (NHTSA), the Hollis Police Department staffed two additional impaired driving enforcement patrols over the Labor Day holiday weekend. As a result, the following arrests were made:

9/3/22, at 12:16 AM, Terrence Champion, 68, of Hudson, was stopped for a speeding violation. He was subsequently taken into custody, charged with DUI and speeding.

9/3/22, at 2:10AM, Lawrence Falls, 57, of Teaticket, MA, was stopped for a speeding violation. He was subsequently taken into custody, charged with DUI and speeding.

9/3/22, at 9:45 PM, Bronz Ross, 56, of Pepperell MA, was stopped for a speeding violation. He was subsequently taken into custody, charged with DUI and speeding.

All three defendants were released on PR bail with arraignments scheduled at the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District.

To date, the Hollis Police Department has made 40 DUI arrests this year, which is a 48% increase over the same time frame in 2021.
