FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: December 7, 2022
Authorized By: Capt. Brendan LaFlamme
Contact: Officer Joseph Wallent

On November 21, 2022, Nicholas Knee, 40, was arrested by members of the Hollis Police Department on a number charges. Since that time, he has been held at the Hillsborough County House of Corrections on cash only bail. After his initial arrest, the Hollis Police Department received a report of a previous assault allegedly to have been committed by Knee. After an investigation, an arrest warrant was issued for Knee, charging him with 2ND Degree Assault- Strangulation (Felony), and Criminal Threatening (Misdemeanor).

On December 7, 2022, Hollis Officers responded to the Hillsborough County House of Corrections where Knee was taken into custody on the warrant. He was transported to the Hollis Police Department for processing. Knee refused the services of a bail commissioner and was transported back to HCHOC to await an arraignment at the Hillsborough County Superior Court, Southern District.

Knee currently has charges pending in Hillsborough County Superior Court North, Superior Court South, and the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District.
