On January 27, 2022, at approximately 1:45 PM, Hollis Officers responded to a local business for a report of Indecent Exposure. Officers arrived on scene and learned that a customer had urinated outside of the business in full view of other customers and staff members. The subject responsible had left prior to officers arrival. Employees were able to provide a description of the subject, as well as a description of the vehicle. Officers located the vehicle driving on Depot Rd, and initiated a motor vehicle stop.

He was transported to the Hollis Police Department where he was processed and released on PR bail with an arraignment date scheduled at the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District.
