Over the week of Thanksgiving, the Hollis Police Department made multiple arrests for impaired driving offenses. Those arrests are detailed below.

On November 19, at approximately 8:15 PM, Craig A. Lewis, 63, of Pepperell was stopped for lane control issues. After a roadside investigation, Officers determined that he was impaired. He was taken into custody and charged with DUI.

On November 21, at approximately 1:10 AM, Corey J. Ball, 28, of Nashua, was stopped for a speeding and a yellow line violation. Subsequent to a roadside investigation, he was taken into custody and charged with DUI.

On November 25, at approximately 1:15 AM, Officers responded to a reported single vehicle accident on Farley Rd. The driver was identified as David J. Simoneau, 22, of Litchfield. He was transported to a local hospital, where he was charged with DUI.

On November 28, at approximately 4:00 PM, Officers responded to a Marion Dr address for a report of a motor vehicle accident. A vehicle was found to have traveled across a residential yard, where it had crashed into a tree. The driver was identified as Michael Brown, 33, of Nashua. He was transported to a local hospital, where he was charged with DUI (subsequent). Due to a previous conviction of DUI, Brown faces a potential enhanced penalty upon conviction.

Lewis, Brown and Ball all received PR bail with arraignments scheduled at the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District. Simoneau was released on a summons at the hospital where he was continuing to receive treatment for non life threatening injuries.
